

St. Mary's Parochial School

St. Mary's School located on First Street was a Catholic school built in 1892 behind St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church (Located on Cedar Street). St. Mary's Catholic School was a Grade K-8 school.

After a fire destroyed St. Mary's Church, a new church was built on outer Ohio St. The new St. Mary's Church on Ohio St. was dedicated on Dec. 14, 1980. Eventually the school followed. St. Mary's school on Ohio Street merged with St. John's School and is now known as All-Saints School. The St. Mary's campus serves Pre-kindergarden through grade 3 while the St. John's campus serves grades 4-8. The original St. Mary's Parochial School and Convent is now the home of Community Health and Counseling.

The Former St. Mary's School and Convent On First Street

(Now Community Health and Counseling Services)